FR JULIAN WRITES...

It's been a busy time in the parish recently! It's good to note that at Easter and since numbers attending have increased and we've been delighted to welcome new people into our family.

After quite some time, progress is being made on the purchase of a property to replace the old verger's house in Trinity St. It's all a bit complicated! Over 60 years ago, the Searles, who lived there, left the property to the diocese of Bath and Wells for the exclusive benefit of Holy Trinity. It was used after its being left for various successive vergers. In recent years, the church council have poured £thousands into the property, and it was becoming a liability rather than an asset.

Due to the hard work of David Lovelock, the charitable deed was altered, making the use of the legacy far more flexible and in HT's favour. Towards the end of April, an offer made by the PCC on the diocese's behalf, was accepted on a modern first-floor flat a few hundred yards away from the church. It is hoped, that were all to go well, that the property would initially continue to be rented, as it is at present, and provide a boost to our finances. Here's hoping!

This is one example of great generosity in the past, and we have an opportunity to give thanks for a far more recent act of generosity: the refurbishment of the bells at HT. An anonymous donor has paid for the entire work (with the exception of a grant) which has resulted in the bells being completely restored, and rehung on a modern frame.

On Sunday June 11th, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, and many guests and visitors from the bell-ringing fraternity, will be attending a service of thanksgiving for, and rededication of, the bells, at a service at 6.30pm, followed afterwards by light refreshments in the church. Please make every effort to attend – and bring your friends!

Before that event, we will be holding our Summer Fair on June 3rd between 11am and 2pm in the church grounds. Raffle tickets will be available for sale in good time, and Cheryl Grindle and John Godley will be very pleased to receive any offers of help, as will the stallholders, without doubt. This is always a happy occasion, even if it is hard work.

After Easter, we have been hearing in the gospel readings how the fledgeling church came into being, culminating in its formation by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (28th May this year). I've often heard, especially outside the church community, grumbling that the church always seems to be after money. It seems a far cry from the Early Church.

But then the Early Church did not have the responsibility for preserving and maintaining heritage buildings! And we seem to forget that those early followers of the risen Christ actually sold all they had and gave it into a Common Fund administered by the apostles. Whereas I recognise that it is not likely that this is going to happen today, people like the Searles have left there all to churches such as ours. If it weren't for such generosity and foresight, I doubt whether HT would be here today as we know it.

I also know that many of you continue to be very generous in your regular giving to the church, despite all the financial pressures that have been exerted on us in the year or so. Thank you. It is good to say that we have not only paid ALL our parish share of the Common Fund once again, but even achieved a very small surplus in our financial accounts. Frankly, I am disgusted that we, and many others in the same position, make every effort to pay, whereas, for instance, a certain Abbey in the north of the diocese (beginning with 'B' if that's not clear enough!) has not paid a single penny of their Parish Share. I don't want to be sour grapes, but I feel for you and all in a similar position.

In conclusion, please pray for the completion of the purchase of the flat, the success of the Summer Fair, and for those parishes who are struggling financially.

With my prayers and good wishes

Fr Julian

MAY SAINTS - Fr Julian's selection of this month's saints

1st St Philip and St James Informally known as Pip'n'Jim, Philip was born in Bethsaida in Galilee and was one of the 12 Apostles that Jesus called. Immediately, Philip began to convert others, finding his friend Nathaniel and telling him that Jesus was the one whom Moses and the other prophets had foretold. James the Lesser is called "Lesser" because he was younger than the other Apostle by the same name, James the Great. James the less was related in some way to Jesus, and after Jesus' Ascension into heaven, he became the head of the Church in Jerusalem. He was martyred in the year 62.

2nd St Athanasius (c.296–298 – 2 May 373), was a church father and the 20th pope of Alexandria. His intermittent episcopacy spanned 45 years (c. 8 June 328 – 2 May 373), of which over 17 encompassed five exiles, when he was replaced on the order of four different Roman emperors. Athanasius was a Christian theologian, a Church Father, the chief defender of Trinitarianism against Arianism, and a noted Egyptian Christian leader of the fourth century.

5th St Asaph was, in the second half of the 6th century, the first Bishop of St Asaph, i.e. bishop of the diocese of Saint Asaph. A bit of an enigma, more is learnt about him from a 'Life of St Kentigern'; no 'life' was written about Asaph.

10th St John of Ávila (6 Jan 1499–10 May 1569) was a Spanish priest, preacher, scholastic author, and religious mystic, who has been declared a saint and Doctor of the Church by the Catholic Church. He is called the 'Apostle of Andalusia', for his extensive ministry in that region.

19th St Dunstan (c. 909 - 19 May 988) He was successively Abbot of Glastonbury Abbey, Bishop of Worcester, Bishop of London and Archbishop of Canterbury, later canonised as a saint. His work restored monastic life in England and reformed the English Church. His 11th-century biographer Osbern, states that Dunstan was skilled in 'making a picture and forming letters'. He was the most popular saint in England for nearly two centuries, having gained fame for the many stories of his greatness, not least among which were those concerning his famed cunning in defeating the Devil.

25th St Bede – the Venerable (672/3 – 26 May 735), was an English monk at the monastery of St Peter and its companion monastery of St Paul in the Kingdom of Northumbria of the Angles. He is primarily remembered for his seminal work, 'The Ecclesiastical History of the English People.'

27th St Augustine of Canterbury (early 6th century - ?26 May 604) was a monk who became the first Archbishop of Canterbury in the year 597. He is considered the "Apostle to the English" and a founding figure of the Church of England. A Somerset boy, he was born in Weston, Bath. He was Bishop of Winchester before coming Archbishop of Canterbury. He was captured by Viking raiders, and killed a year later as he refused to be ransomed. Thomas Becket (1170), a successor, prayed to him before his own martyrdom.

A RECIPE FOR MAY

KIPPER PASTE

Any kippers can be used to make this inexpensive and delicious paste which is a worthy alternative to the usual smoked mackerel.

Ingredients

1 pair undyed kippers Salted butter Salt Cayenne pepper Mace or nutmeg Lemon juice

Method

- Put the kippers into a roasting tin long enough to accommodate them or stand tails upward in a tall heatproof jug and completely cover with boiling water. Leave for ten minutes.
- > Drain well and carefully remove bones and skin.
- Weigh the resulting flesh and take half of this weight of butter. Pound or process the flesh with the butter to a very smooth paste.
- Add pepper, a tiny amount of cayenne plus lemon juice, taste for salt and add cautiously if you feel the mixture requires it.
- Pack into a pot and cover tightly. This will keep well in the fridge for several days.
- Serve with hot toast fingers and extra lemon to squeeze over.

FROM THE SACRISTY

Easter is over for another year - or is it? It surprises many people to learn that it lasts until Pentecost (or Whitsunday!). It is the second longest liturgical season. Ordinary time (the green season) is longer. So we stay White until Pentecost when the rich red hangings will grace the altars.

Not only do the colours change but the incense too. For the main Easter services of Maundy Thursday. the Easter Vigil and Easter Day we used Rosa Mystica, a lovely light perfume produced at Alton Abbey. Why do we use incense? The principal reason is the smoke, it is symbolic of purification and sanctification. Also it symbolises the prayers - an outward sign of spiritual realities.

The realities in the Sanctuary are everyday preparation for the Mass and the 'washing up' afterwards. Washing the linens. Changing the colours according to the Liturgical season. Serving at the altar is a huge privilege but it is also enjoyable.

We have had an offer to help with washing the linens for which we are very grateful but we could do with more people to serve. It is not an onerous role and when one of us is away for whatever reason it leaves a gap, be it acolyte or Chalice Assistant. Then we do a 'shuffle around' of roles - you may have noticed! Could God be calling you to offer to serve? Maybe only occasionally. Perhaps you have served before,,,,, is God calling you again? Whether new or experienced you will be very welcome.

UNITED

I was struck by the symbolism of the fact that the Stone of Scone is to come back from Edinburgh to be placed under the Coronation Throne, and by the graffiti on the throne left by people in the 18th and 19th centuries, one of whom, named P. Abbott, claimed to have slept on it on 5/6 July 1800!

> An ancient ornate wooden seat And an historic stone Shall once again be joined and meet To form a royal throne.

Our kings and queens, anointed there O'er seven hundred years. Upon this Anglo-Scottish chair They heard their people's cheers!

The throne was formed of English Oak And gilded with fine gold It bears the marks of common folk – Who slept there, so we're told.

The stone was used by Scottish kings. Upon the Stone of Scone Was marked the destiny it brings In time-eroded rune.

And now, united once again As royal anthems ring; We sing, united just like them Our hymn 'God save the King!'

By Nigel Beeton from the Parish Pump

PRAYER FOR KING CHARLES 111

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, bless our Sovereign Lord, King Charles, and all who are in authority under him; that they may order all things in wisdom and equity, righteousness and peace, to the honour of your name, and the good of your Church and people; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EASTER RAFFLE

Many thanks for all the support given in purchasing squares on our Easter Pick a Square. The amazing amount of £92 was made for church funds.

Special thanks to Cheryl Grindle for having the idea, and for all her help. Perhaps next year we can beat this amount!

NEWS FROM THE CRAFTERS

Our Thursday afternoon craft sessions are still going strong.

Currently we are working on a knitted bed throw which we hope to raffle, the design is based on a Victorian pattern picked up in the Tintagel National Trust shop.

Apart from individual items made for ourselves we are intending to make slippers for sale at the fete also hand painted coasters.

Our next project is to make kneelers for the lady chapel, but these are expensive so we are hoping that some of you might like to make a donation. Each kneeler kit costs between £62 and £78 and we would like to purchase the kits as one order hopefully representing the 12 Apostles.

If you can help with a donation or would like to make one, please contact myself or Jenni Llewellyn.

We are always happy to welcome new crafters and if it's not your thing you are welcome to come for a chat and a cuppa.

MEMORIES OF TWO CORONATIONS

In this Coronation month I have vague memories of the Coronation of George VI. In May 1937 I was a four year old in the infants class at school and we children were each given a small Union Jack flag, a beaker and two shiny new pennies. I remember being seated at my desk with these gifts upon it. Later I was intrigued by all the items being put on the great bonfire on Plymouth Hoe to celebrate the Coronation on 12th May 1937.

Next my thoughts turn to June 2nd 1953 when our late Queen Elizabeth was crowned in Westminster Abbey.

Four days before, I had said farewell to RAF Innsworth, between Gloucester and Cheltenham, where I had just completed two years of National Service and was now home in Plymouth. As we didn't have television at that time, I decided to listen to the Coronation Service and Procession broadcast on the radio, while redecorating my bedroom at the same time. The rest of the family were downstairs also listening to the radio.

In the evening I went with my parents and brother to Plymouth Hoe to join in the Coronation celebrations. We saw a display by commandos jumping off Smeaton Tower. When it grew dark, there was a parade of decorated boats, a mock battle including a mock air attack in Plymouth Sound. The ships in the Sound were outlined with innumerable light bulbs and there was a beautiful illuminated crown shining out on Drakes Island. The celebrations went on until after 1am on Wednesday and finished with a magnificent display of fireworks and the lighting of a huge bonfire between Smeaton Tower and the Citadel.

We missed the last bus so we had to walk the few miles home, but it was worth it after experiencing such celebrations.

MAGAZINE DEADLINE: Wednesday 17th May 2023

ASCENSION by Malcolm Guite

We saw his light break through the cloud of glory Whilst we were rooted still in time and place As earth became a part of Heaven's story And heaven opened to his human face. We saw him go and yet we were not parted He took us with him to the heart of things The heart that broke for all the broken-hearted Is whole and Heaven-centred now, and sings, Sings in the strength that rises out of weakness, Sings through the clouds that veil him from our sight, Whilst we ourselves become his clouds of witness And sing the waning darkness into light, His light in us, and ours in him concealed, Which all creation waits to see revealed.

SMILE LINES

Mark

When the late Dean of York was asked why he called his stumpy-tailed fox terrier 'Mark', he explained: "The New Testament contains the lifestories of our Lord by Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Mark's is the shortest tale!"

Eve and leaves

Adam bit the apple and, feeling great shame, covered himself with a fig leaf. Eve, too, felt shame and covered herself with a fig leaf. Then she went behind the bush to try on a maple leaf, a sycamore, and an oak.

IN MAY

In May, sweet roses scent the air, And glistening insects dart and blare. Sweet springtime blossoms far and wide. Dame Nature leaves stern tasks aside, To garnish earth with tender care.

This happy month is ever fair; As all things take the utmost care To honour God's own Virgin Bride In May.

At dusk, sweet Aves, heavenly prayer, Attest men's love and are their share In praising her, while side by side Their voices sound to show their pride In Mary, Queen of all that's fair In May.
